IT MAKES THEM SQUEAL!

But We Can't Help It!

Our immense assortment of New Style Clothing for MEN, BOYS or CHILDREN, selling at such

WONDERFUL LOW PRICES,

Strikes dismay to the very hearts of our puny competitors.

We Rise to Explain.

We do not claim to be any wonderful Genii who comes for the benefit of the public alone, at a sacrifice to himself; we are simply

Wholesale Manufacturers of Clothing,

Who make a specialty of getting up an absolute assortment of NICE FITTING, WELL-MADE, NEW STYLE Garments as can be found on EARTH.

OUR SYSTEM.

We look about, through the different cities in the United States, and when we find a place where a FIVE HOUSE is needed, WE SETTLE and at once begin to

Break Down High Prices,

By Selling First Class Clothing at Reasonable Prices.

HOW WE CAN DO IT.

1st. We do not want for capital, therefore we can purchase goods at very low figures, exemplifying the fact that goods well bought are half sold.

2d. We buy all our cloth directly of the Mills, often taking the entire production of two or three mills at once.

3d. We manufacture all our own Clothing, employing only experienced workmen in every department, producing nothing but FIRST CLASS WORK.

4th. We make such immense quantities at a time that the cost of production is necessarily quite low. Without reducing the quality of our clothing.

5th. And last but not least, we sell for CASH ONLY and so per cent. added to the manufacturing cost. That's why we Defy Competition!

And when our POOR, PETTY COMPETITORS cry "SHODDY AND SEW CLOTHING" they only cast reflections on the judgment of the citizens of Bangor, which is sure to recoil to their own destruction, sooner or later. Their cheap talk reminds me of

IT TICKLES, BUT DON'T HURT.

The more they talk the better we are pleased. PTADVERTISES US more than they imagine! We have been through just such fusillades before and were immensely benefitted by it as long as possible, only don't "PEG" out too soon.

SO TOOT YOUR HORN

One Thousand Dollars!

We will give $1000.00 to any Charitable Institution in Maine that the Mayor of Bangor may designate, if the prices marked on each garment in our entire stock to-day is not FAR BELOW the prices marked on similar garments offered in quality, of any other dealer in Bangor.

TALK IS CHEAP.

NOW EITHER PUT UP OR SHUT UP!

We wish the public to distinctly understand that we have the LARGEST and BEST assortment of MENS', BOYS', and CHILDRENS'

READY MADE CLOTHING

to be found in Bangor, and that our prices are FAR BELOW any other dealer in this city.

ONE PRICE TO ALL!

No Bantering, No Jewing, No Misrepresentations! Truth Throughout!

If any person finds that the garment purchased is not what was represented or if the same can be bought LOWER elsewhere, RETURN IT AND GET YOUR MONEY. REMEMBER THE PLACE.

AT HOME AGAIN.

FRANKLIN HOUSE,

BANGOR, ME.

The undersigned, after a vacation of nearly two years, does himself the pleasure at this date to notify the FRANKLIN HOUSE, which he established more than thirty years ago, and which has grown up under his administration to Landlord, to its present first proportions and high reputation. Thoroughly refurbished, and with more zeal than ever in the discharge of the duties of a landlord, he assumes the direction of this favorite business house which has been one of the best appointed Hotels in Maine.

The location of the Franklin House is exceedingly pleasant and healthy. It is abundantly supplied with all modern conveniences and comforts. It is close to the Post Office, and convenient to the business streets. MR. QUINBY, who has so long been connected with the establishment, will continue to fill the position of Chief Clerk.

My friends and old patrons whom I have known and entertained for the last thirty-five years, are cordially invited to visit the FRANKLIN HOUSE, and judge whether the change of the landlord's hand is not as natural and certain as it was before the fronts of Summer visitors had begun to look like Verily Guyer's famous signature."

DEMOCRACY IN LEADING-STRINGS.

From the Boston Journal.

It used to be the boast that the Democratic party, whatever its deficiencies in the way of principle and high aims, was a faithful exponent of the popular sentiment. It believed in living near to the people and of being neither better nor worse than the people, whose implicit will it shared, so that it had no need of the management and dictation from above which were seen in other parties. But it is clear enough that the feeling of the present Democratic managers in Congress is the direct contrary to all this. They have opened a session of Congress in which they hold a strong majority in the popular branch, but instead of proceeding eagerly to work as any one would have, anticipated from their campaign speeches last autumn and fall, they are palpably shivering over their responsibility, delaying business from day to day on one pretence and another, and even trying to muffle the average Democratic Representative on the floor of the House, as if he were the "Unfang terrible" who might any moment divulge the secrets of the party householdt and put everybody by the ears.

This was the real point of the prolonged discussion in the Democratic caucus on Monday. An attempt was made to have an extraordinary committee appointed of one from each State and Territory, which should take complete control of all public business off the Democratic side and of all debates likely to secret but irresistible history. This was a little too much for the new members, who have naturally a plan to make a figure on the floor, and to feel that they, in coming fresh from the people, have some right to speak without the permission and control of the old members. They succeeded in defeating that proposition, but they will not throw off the dictation while it put forward some what to a humility. A committee of thirteen is to be in failed over the Democratic side of the House, and it is to be selected by Mr Lamar of Mississippi—that following how quickly all reins are gathered into the hands of the Southern Democratic leaders. This committee will then, before each and every of business, decide what topics shall be taken up, how they shall be brought forward, and what speakers shall reply to the Republicans. The great body of the Democratic members, therefore, will be reduced to mere voters, being given, perhaps, subordinate parts enough now and then to reconcile them to their subservient position. It remains to be seen how they will submit to this elaborate programme. At all events, the method of procedure is a curious comment upon the present spirit and action of the Democratic party. It has developed a degree of power for which it is not prepared. Much as it fear the Republican leaders, of the House, it stands in no more dread of its own forces. Dissensions and schism are felt to be on the point of breaking out and strolling every day, unless remorselessly kept down by the vigilance of the leaders, who rely on imposing merit rather than the support of people. In short, Democracy of the present day is merely a nominal affair, a life less all that interest, vigor, harmony and popular confidence which once in the it respectable even in the midst of its faults. It agrees to rule forty millions of people by no higher merits than party tactics, and it cannot invariably fail.

Mayor Laughton certainly seems unfortunate in his misunderstandings of the remarks of other gentlemen. He attributed sentiments to the Solicitor which he was led to admit that Mr. Ware emphatically disowned, and he now publishes a card correcting his statement of language imputed to Alderman Wilde. Of course the Mayor is well aware that neither Mr. Wilde nor his associates in the present City Council had anything whatever to do with the original $3,000 Order, and the persistency of mixing their names with it is not clearly apparent. The Order authorized the Mayor to draw the money when a certain "right" had been secured; what kind of a right was obtained, is shown by the Mayor's own letter. The steps through which he communicated the public venture a two or three months' agitation, attaining a degree of public knowledge of law," the intelligent Democrats of Bangor would be much more interested if a paper which assumes to represent them would dare to express opinions of its own upon a matter, of public concern.

THE POLITICAL OUTLOOK. The Republican Senate and the Democratic House stood like swordsmen at the commencement of a match, with their weapons sheathed, each watching for the other, and waiting for him to make a thrust that could be advantageously parried. Nor is it the least hope that the Democratic Representatives fear. They find the Republicans of their own body, although in a minority, united and experienced leadership of Mr. Blaine, they will not be easy to defeat. And at last, a general define expressed by Republicans here to have the party recall to its original standpoints, and to concentrate in the work of regeneration, reform, economy and reform. Many of those operators who jumped on the Republican train when it began to be successful in 1861, who have never comprehended what Republicanism is, have been shoved off, and the good results of their absence are already apparent.—Wash. Cor. Boston Advertiser.

STEINWAY'S PRIVILEGE. It is stated that Mr. Glover declined accepting a fee from the Government in the St. Louis whiskey cases because he regarded such acceptance under the circumstances, as a composition of certain privileges which not only every attorney, but every man, feels himself entitled to in this country." This means, if it means anything, that every man in this country is entitled to take away his neighbor's character, if he chooses, and in particular, that a lawyer may go out of his way, in argument to cast suspicion upon the acts and motives of the President. The "privilege" of assailing a man who is not present and cannot reply, is one which a lawyer with any regard for fair play would not want, and we don't believe Mr. Glover said anything of the kind.—Portland Advertiser.

It is said that an attempt will be made by the Democrats to deprive Sherman of the rank of General, on the ground that he holds it illegally. The Gordons, Cockrells and other Confederates want to "get even."

We are glad to learn from the Machias Union that "Mr. Drake has made wonderful improvement during the past five days, and hopes of his ultimate recovery are stronger than at a previous time."

THE NEW PROCLAMATION.

[Portland (Me.) Herald Organ of Q.]

ANOTHER DEMOCRATIC BLUNDER—A BILL TO INCREASE THE PENSION LIST, WITH ADDERS AND AUDITORS OF THE REBELLION.

The Democrats in Congress continue to play into the hands of their adversaries. Like the Bourbons, whom they are so often named after, they never learn anything, and never forget anything. For example, Senator Merrimon, of North Carolina, very quietly introduced a bill to-day, to repeal section 4716 of the Revised Statutes. Those who were curious enough to refer to the paragraph found that it was a section of the Pension law which provides that "no money on account of pensions shall be paid to any person [or to the widow, children or heirs of any deceased person who, in any manner, voluntarily engaged in or aided or abetted the late rebellion against the authority of the United States." The introduction of this bill is about on a par, if it is not a good deal worse, than the blunder of the Louisiana resolution. The Democrats have put their foot in it twice within a single week.

The introduction of the "third term" question in Congress, which has nothing to do with the matter, was a piece of partisan impudence on the part of an Illinois Democrat, but we presume that Gen. Pickett, in visiting Canada by delegation on the matter, made no pretense of representing anybody but himself. The laws, we are told as follows:

Bradley of Michigan, Dennison (Independent Republican) Vermont, Harrison of Alabama (colored), Hoge of South Carolina, Hubbell of Michigan, Ingram of North Carolina (colored), MacDougall of New York, Nash of Louisiana (colored), Page of California, Plaisted of Maine, Price of Iowa, Smalls of South Carolina (colored), Wallace of South Carolina, Walls of Florida (colored), Wells of Mississippi, White of Kentucky and Whiting of Illinois.

PUBLIC ADVERTISING. The Rockland Gazette says: "In view of the tendency to make this paper an advertising medium for slanging school-ma'ams, lectures, concerts and quack doctors, a clergyman down in St. John has wisely taken a bold stand against the new fangled system, and declares that no more notices of the kind will be read by him, and he has decided not to open the newspapers to their peculiar privileges. This is a move in the right direction, and will tend to suppress the introduction of such secular matter into sacred places. As not altogether foreign to the subject, we may remark here that it is the height of effrontery to ask newspapers to give free local notices of entertainments, lectures or lectures, for objects other than those purely benevolent; and to which an admission fee is charged."

The Gardiner Journal must should be given credit by the U. P. U. T. A. for the following words:

It gives us the greatest pleasure to announce that at a recent pigeon shoot in this State, the ball, who shoots what another, but it I will forgive that which compelled to stand this fit did not kill him.

DENTAL CARD.

DR. J. F. BABCOCK desires to say to that class of sufferers who are afflicted with aching teeth that is almost every instance, the pain can be instantly relieved, and that within from two to five further painless treatments the tooth may be filled and permanently restored to health. In support of his assertion, Dr. B. would say that in no single instance has he ever failed to save every aching tooth within his last attempted to have, and during the past four years there have been at least about one hundred and thirty of them. Moreover, effective teeth should never be neglected until they ache. Even upon the first appearance of decay they should at once be properly, and so permanently, filled with unassailable material—the latter, pure gold being pre-eminently the best. Since 1841, Dr. Babcock has used in each tooth filled more than three thousand gold fillings, and it is with much pride that he makes the statement that, to the best of his knowledge, but these fillings only out of that large number have proved defective. He does not positively assure that there are some who will affect to consider his assertions as mere boasting, but he cannot consistently state facts in relation to dentistry that are such in the highest degree. Children will be treated with especial care. Dr. B. does not desire to perform work, and will endeavor to accomplish [illegible] are justly deserved, but those who desire such work will find they can and will thereby well do, and then receive the compliments with indifference and equanimity. Dr. Babcock makes a specialty of all operations in the dental profession, and guarantees to avoid all unnecessary pain, which in the very large majority of operations is entirely avoided.

THE WHISKEY FRAUDS

IMPORTANT STATEMENT,

THE REVOKING of the TRANSFER ORDER

Supervisor Tutton says he caused the Revocation

WASHINGTON Dec 16 Supervisor Alexander P Tutton of the Internal Revenue District comprising Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Maryland and the District of Columbia, has addressed a letter to the President which has an important bearing on the charges preferred against Gen Babcock. Mr Tutton refers to the now suppressed report of Mr Henderson's remarks in the recent trial in which he charged Gen Babcock with complicity with the St Louis Whiskey Ring, and that he had in the Ring interest improperly influenced the President to revoke the order of the Secretary of the Treasury transferring the supervisors dated Jan 27, 1873. Mr Tutton says he was chiefly to blame for the credit of having advised the revoking of that order and was willing to assume the responsibility therefor.

In that transfer Mr Tutton was ordered to St Louis and informed that he might be kept there all year. He had interviews with Commissioner Douglass and the Secretary of the Treasury, in which he strongly objected to his own change on personal grounds and to the general change as not calculated to secure good results. He argued upon the Secretary that if the suspensions were well founded of excessive frauds by distillers and concealed by corrupt collectors the public notification of the discharge of supervisors would afford the guilty parties opportunity to conceal their frauds until the officers temporarily selected could get control. He argued that the newly appointed officers would have great difficulties in finding out anything of importance—Here he remembered that he had said to the officers in that thoroughly competent and unknown to the parties of those movements would be entirely secret should be sent out to a certain what was going on; and if possible, catch the parties in the act of defrauding the Government. It was obtaining evidence on which to act. The Secretary was impressed with his views told him the President was specially interested in unearthing the frauds and requested Mr Tutton to see the President. He called at the White House and in appropriate interview with the President strongly urged the views presented above, and recommended Mr Brooks who had been employed for some time as Special Agent, as an excellent man to conduct the business. The President was much impressed with the argument and finally said the world is full of rogues and for their benefit they must die.

Mr Tutton is positive that the President did not understand that Gen Babcock could have had nothing to do with it; Mr Tutton says this advice he gave he believed for the best interest of the public service, and he points to the results in St Louis Chicago and Milwaukee where Mr Brooks was sent. He suggested as fully vindicating the correctness of his judgment.

It is proper to say that the plan suggested by Mr Tutton was adopted, and Mr Brooks whom he suggested should go to St Louis Chicago and Milwaukee to hunt up the frauds.

ROCKPORT, Dec. sheet, 1875

DR C B LIGHTHILL—A feeling of gratitude for your skill as well as will for the restoration of our daughter's eyes, compels us to write to acknowledge a secret hoping that others in this vicinity, who are similarly afflicted, may profit by your treatment. We think it is almost seven years since we visited you at Augusta and I am not for three years previous to that time the use of her eyes was entirely lost, caused by cataract and scrofula. After trying all our best physicians in this vicinity and being told more than once that our child must be led by others through life, we heard of and applied to you. You assured us you could restore her sight, and following your instructions in three weeks time our child could see to read and write. She has never relapsed and has ever since been able to see to do her work by using the glasses you fitted for her. The result of your skill and treatment is almost a miracle. Hoping this may benefit some afflicted as our child was, we remain

Yours truly and gratefully

AUGUSTA, Nov 26th, 1875.

DR C B LIGHTHILL—Dear Sir: I wish to say that I have been afflicted with a cataract over the left eye for several years, and have been under the treatment of several oculists, all of whom pronounced the case incurable. I have used your medicine about two months and it has entirely restored the sight of the eye. I have also been afflicted with a disease of the throat, which has troubled me very much for a long time, and I am happy to say that your medicine has entirely relieved me of it. I have also used your medicine for my children, and it has proved very beneficial to them. I shall take pleasure in recommending your medicine to my friends, and shall be happy to answer any inquiries in regard to the case.

Yours truly,

AUGUSTA, Dec. 1875.

DR. C. B. LIGHTHILL—Dear Sir: Some years since I received a severe accident which resulted in Cataract, and although I have used many prescriptions for it without receiving any benefit therefrom, I have taken your medicine about two months and it has cured me. I would recommend those who are afflicted with this disorder to apply to you. I am confident, if they will strictly follow your directions, that a cure will be effected, however inveterate the case may be.

IRA FISH.

Dr. C. B. LIGHTHILL takes pleasure in stating that the above expressions of gratitude for successful service rendered, are but a few of the many he has now in his possession, coming from parties equally reliable who have been cured of Deafness, Blindness or Catarrh, and those who are afflicted are invited to call.
